

Quantum Healing Mastercourse

Module 11 – How to Conduct Effective Remote Healing Sessions

Quantum Healing works equally well in person or remotely via phone, Skype or Zoom. You will benefit from Darren's long experience with remote sessions, and practice giving and receiving. This opens up a whole world of connection and opportunity for you. In this module, you'll discover:

In this module, you'll discover:

1. How and why remote sessions work - and how to gain confidence and attunement in offering them
2. Logistics and structuring of remote healing sessions
3. Quantum Activations to open up your remote healing abilities

You will receive thorough grounding in all of these objectives by reading Chapter 12 in Awakening the Avatar Within book. I suggest reading or listening to it twice. It contains scientific backup for how and why remote sessions work, and step by step instructions for conducting them.

Practice remote sessions with your buddy a few times – going through all the procedures outlined. As you start with these you will find your own style and pacing that integrates your own healing methods into remote sessions.
